The first variant runs along the crête du Cherix (spectacular but requires a very secure foot!), The second variant runs along the Riondaz on the east side. From Solacyre, follow Prafandaz, Prafandaz pass and Luan to reach the starting point.

Practical information

This route can be done in both directions. It is not recommended to travel after heavy rains or in very humid weather. Some passages require a secure foot. For people who are very sensitive to vertigo, it is better to follow La Riondaz on the east side than to follow the crête du Cherix.
